

Advocating for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities since 1952.

Michigan Developmental Disabilities Institute

The Arc of Midland invites you to four great learning opportunities:

Wayne State University's Developmental Disabilities Institute for an empowerment education training for Direct Support Professionals!

(989) 631-4439

2602 Louanna St. Midland, MI
48640

Achieve with us.®

When: February 20, 2019
Where: Grace A. Dow Memorial Library

10:30am-12:00pm

1. Creating A Culture of Support: This training focuses on exploring the system of positive behavioral supports. Throughout this model, participants will learn the benefits of developing positive relations, and techniques that Direct Support Professionals can use to build and sustain positive relationships with the people they serve.

1:00pm-2:30pm

2. Supporting Growth Through Opportunity and Choices: This training is designed to give you information about how to support people with disabilities in making their own choices without influencing them in their decision-making.
-

When: March 20, 2019

Where: Grace A. Dow Memorial Library

10:30am-12:00pm

1. Teaching Made Easy: This training is designed to provide information on how you can effectively teach people with disabilities new life skills through the use of different teaching strategies and techniques.

1:00pm-2:30pm

2. Supporting People in Establishing Friendships and Making Community Connections: This training is designed to give you information about ways you can support people with disabilities in developing relationships/ friendships with people in the community.

Limited Seating Available

Click HERE to register

